

The Big Event

Imagine you are a volcanologist or a seismologist. The big event is about to occur (either an earthquake or a volcanic eruption). You are following its progress. Describe the event as it unfolds, including details of how the phenomenon progresses, including as much scientific detail as possible.